NEVADA VS. CALIFORNIA.

Sagebrush Boys to Meet Berkeley and Stanford on the Gridiron.

The Nevada football team leaves this morning on the 5:30 passenger train for the big California 'Varsities. The same team that so thoroughly worsted the redoubtable Reliance giants are to line up against Berkeley and Stanford, and there is every reason to believe that the boys will come home with a scalp or two hanging to their war harness.

The game with Berkeley will be played on Wednesday, and on the following Saturday Stanford will meet the husky Sagebrushers.

Reports that arrive from the California gridirons bring news of rainy days and muddy fields; but Nevada beat Stanford in a sea of mud last year and perhaps she can repeat the performance this fall.

A number of enthusiastic rooters will accompany the team on their tour of California, and furnish the necessary encouragement by dint of lusty yells and smiling faces. Among the youths intent upon going are Southworth, Gray, Stewart, Lyman, Bradshaw, Cane and a dozen others.

A Very Pretty Home Wedding.

A very pretty home wedding was that of Miss Christine Frandsen and Christian Duborg. The bride is a sister of Prof. P. P. Frandsen, of the University, and the groom has extensive interests in the sheep industry in the eastern part of the State.

Only a few immediate friends of the family, besides the relatives were present. After the ceremony the wedding guests partook of a delightful supper, and the bride and groom received many valuable gifts from their host of friends. They will take up their residence in the eastern part of the State, where Mr. Duborg's business calls him.

The Marriage Bureau Thrives.

The Reno people took a turn at the marriage license bureau last week. On the 26th a license was issued to C. H. Durborg, granting him permission to wed Miss Christine Frandsen of this city. On the same day another license was procured by Jasper B. Law, who took unto himself as wife, Miss Mary Jane Robson, both parties being of Reno.

Then the California couples, notwithstanding the gloominess of the weather, still persist in tripping airily up to our own little Grinn Green, and honeymooning back.

Licenses written out for California couples were as follows: Howard E. Hull and Minnie E. Moore; James W. Martin and Frances H. Stewart, all of San Francisco.

THE ADVERTISED LETTER LIST

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Reno postoffice, Oct. 29, 1901:

Gentlemen—Robt. E. Allen, Oscar Ambur, J. E. Anderson, K. L. Arbuckle, Martin Elgot, Frank Bickford, David Bowman, Clarence Bradley, Thos. Bronto, C. J. Cervantes, James S. H. P. KRAUS, Postmaster.

Character In Pose.

The windows of the Porteous Decorative Co. are embellished with pretty water color works by Bertha M. Corbett, an artist that is beginning to attract considerable attention. Her sun-bonnet girls and overall boys are delightful creations, proving that character may be represented without reproducing the face of the model.

An Artistic Window.

Gray, Reid & Co.'s windows were handsomely trimmed yesterday. This firm has added the stock of George Lomb. It consists of ladies' wraps, tailor-made suits, etc. Ladies are invited to call and inspect the stock.

A New Department.

The Washoe County Bank has opened a new department, known as an exchange office. Fred Stadtmuller has been placed in charge. Mr. Stadtmuller is from San Francisco, but was formerly a resident of this city.

TO PROSPECTORS AND MINERS.

A fine line of microscopes and compasses from 25 cents to $2, at the Frank Golden Jewelry Store.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Items About People Who Travel to and Fro.

Mrs. John Fulton is quite sick.

Judge C. C. Godwin, formerly editor of the Salt Lake Tribune, and well-known by old Renoites, dropped in on his old friends Sunday, and spent a pleasant time shaking hands with them.

A SERIES OF ACCIDENTS

Three Bad Wrecks Make it Lively for the Trainmen.

A very elaborate wreck occurred Sunday morning in the Reno yards. A fruit train, eastward bound, ran a-muck of a broken rail and as a result several cars got badly twisted about.

Two grape-laden box cars were thrown at right angles to the track, and two or three other cars jumped the rails.

No one was injured, except, perhaps, those to whom the grapes belonged.

The wrecking train arrived in the afternoon and cleared the track of the debris.

The accident proved quite a thrilling substitute for the bicycle race that was to have taken place Sunday; Curious mortals to the number of three or four hundred gathered around the track and put in a few idle hours.

Late Sunday night "Rusty" Coyne's engine, No. 2840, got mashed up with a vengeance. After the wrecking train had set things to rights at the scene of the fruit-car pile-up a rattled brakeman gave Rusty a signal to back up for water.

The wreck was in the way, however, and No. 2840 rushed down the main track hitting it a sliding blow, with dire results to Rusty's engine; ripping off a cylinder, tearing the side railings to bits and picking the cab sheer away from the boiler, then winding up again by derailing the tender.

Luckily Rusty and his fireman, escaped serious injuries; but their close shave made them think strongly of what might have been.

This figured as accident number 3 on this division, the third being a freight which jumped the track at Verdi Sunday afternoon. The wrecking crew were worked to death on their day of much-needed rest.

The Trinity Church Guild will meet this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Mitchell, corner of 2nd and Raleigh streets.

In its write-up of the Happy Jack mine Sunday morning The Journal inadvertently omitted the name of C. M. Sweeney, one of the locators of the property.

Thyres will soon be fitted up in his new quarters on Second street, two doors east of the postoffice, where he will continue to cater to the trade as usual, in the meantime he is still doing business at the old stand.

Pyramid Mines Visited.
Messrs. Cowles and Congdon of New York will visit the Pyramid mines today. They are interested in a new company that will probably operate extensively there. The properties in which these gentlemen are interested adjoin those of the Empire Mining Company.

Joe Pete's History.
The Sunday Bulletin printed a long article about the renegade Joe Pete, whose bloody career and tragic death gave him a reputation that will live some years in the memory of all good Indians.

Miss Phillips Returns.
Miss Sadie Phillips has returned from a trip through Southern California where she went for her health. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is much benefited thereby.

Roads Need Elxing.
The crossings and culverts on the Steamboat road are in a very dilapidated condition, so very bad that traveling over them is greatly impeded. It might be a wise thing for the Commissioners to look into the matter.

Decorative Art.

Will Exchange Locations.
Harry Golding of Reno arrived in Eureka on Tuesday and will accept a position in the Eureka County Bank. C. H. Stoddard, who has been employed in the bank for about a year past, during which time he made many friends, will leave for his home in Reno about November 1.—Sentinel.

That "Breuner" Man Is Here Once More.
Mr. Clarence C. Gaines, representing California's great mail order house, the John Breuner Co., of Sacramento, is at the Riverside Hotel.

Mr. Gaines brings with him a large line of the latest ideas in carpets, linoleums, lace curtains and drapery materials; also many excellent photographs of new designs in furniture. He will be pleased to have you call, look over his samples, and get a catalog.

Sample room 111 Virginia street.

H. H. Beck Finds a Color.
H. H. Beck wandered down into the excavation for the Riverside college last Thursday with a prospect pan and proceeded to test some of the red sand that lay so plentifully among the wash boulders.

Whether the ground was salted or not, this deponeth does not not, but the fact is Mr. Beck got a lovely prospect—quite a string of colors.

No mining locations have yet been made, but there is liable to be a revival of last year's "post-hole" boom, where the whole neighborhood of the Court House was taken up with placer claims.

TERSE AND TO THE POINT

Little Bits of Items, but Still Worthy of Mention.

The raisin crop in California has been injured by moist weather.

The new A. Q. U. W. lodge at Tonopah has a membership of fifty-two.

The Sacramento Presbytery has decided to build a church and manse in Tonopah.

St. Agnes Society Is Entertained.

(By Lydia Adams-Williams.)
The members of St. Agnes' Society of the Catholic Church, formerly known as the Ladies' Aid Society, were charmingly entertained by Mrs. J. F. North, yesterday afternoon at her home at 118 University avenue.

Cut flowers and potted plants beautified the cheerful rooms and formed a pleasing contrast to the gloomy weather outside.

Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon, and social converse, interspersed with music, made the hours pass pleasantly.

Misses Agathe Henry, Allene Gulling, Kate O'Neill and Angie North favored the society with instrumental and vocal selections.

Those present, besides the young ladies mentioned above, were:

Mrs. J. F. North, Mrs. C. Gulling, Mrs. James O'Neill, Mrs. Geo. J. Smith, Mrs. P. Burke, Mrs. Wm. Webster, Jr., Mrs. Harold Duncan, Mrs. J. Howk, Misses Margaret Henry, Lizzie Rammelkamp, Lucy McDermid, Mrs. M. A. Rafferty, Mrs. Adams-Williams, Miss May Burke and Master Charlie Gulling.

The next meeting will be held a week from next Saturday at the home of Mrs. Wm. Webster, Jr., 404 University avenue.

In the Interest of The Journal.
Wm. McClure Gottwaldt left last night for the eastern part of the State, where he goes in the interest of The Journal. The paper is read by all the mining men of Nevada, and as it devotes much time and space in looking up items of mines and mining, it was deemed advisable to send a representative to eastern Nevada, hence Mr. Gottwaldt's trip.

Who, in addition to looking over the mining district will not forget the other industries of our live commonwealth.

During Mr. Gottwaldt's absence J. H. Hamlin will have charge of the local department of The Journal.

TWO RENO MINES BONDED

Outside Capital Will Be Invested in Wedekind District.

Judge Currier, J. W. Spurling, G. W. Arcombs and Lee Hawcroft have bonded their holdings on the Conroy ranch, Wedekind district, to R. H. Arnold and E. G. Morath of Colorado Springs for the sum of $50,000.

This means further developments along mining lines in Washoe county.

The gentlemen who obtained the bond are experienced mining men, and they intend to do their share in delving for the precious metals that abound in the Wedekind district.

A lease and option has been obtained by J. K. Miller and W. E. Price, of El Paso county, Colorado, from H. D. Ramsay, Hull Joy and Helena Joy of two mining claims, known as the "Kentucky Lode" mining claim and the "Sagehen Lode" mining claim in Wedekind district.

The consideration was $40,000, and the lease is to run for three years from date.

Condition of Taxes.
In discussing the article in a recent issue of The Journal regarding the assessment of Washoe county, Deputy Assessor Beard says that the personal property valuations will reach $225,000. The State taxes will be somewhat less than last year, but the county taxes will be very nearly the same.

Lively Day in Town.
Yesterday was a busy day in Reno. The bad weather caused a cessation of farm work and a great many country people were in town. Last night the streets and saloons were crowded. There was a heavy play at the gambling games.

Storm Forebodes Winter.
The recent storm is general, extending over California and eastern Nevada. Quite a good deal of snow fell on the Sierras, 15 inches according to the trainmen, and the thermometer has dropped enough to warrant the donning of overcoat and mittens.

CHINESE LABOR IN HAWAII.

THE attention of our readers is called to a letter in this morning's Journal from Hon. Francis G. Newlands in relation to the introduction of Chinese laborers in our colonial possessions. It is in answer to a letter from George S. Dearborne, President of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, inviting criticism of a communication of the latter which appeared a short time ago in the Expansionist, under the caption of "The Needs of Hawaii." Mr. Newlands' letter is concise, comprehensive and to the point. Although Mr. Dearborne's article related only to the introduction of Asiatic labor in the Hawaiian Islands, Mr. Newlands extends his remarks to Porto Rico, giving most cogent reasons why the system should not be introduced in either of those colonies, from a humanitarian as well as a commercial or financial standpoint, and what he says of those possessions will apply with equal force to the Philippines. He takes the broad ground that the native population of our acquired possessions, with the surplus labor force of the United States proper, is abundant for the needs of all, and that in justice to them, they should be protected from competition with the still cheaper labor of an inferior people from another quarter of the globe. Even the most ardent and radical expansionist will hardly deny the injustice, or even cruelty of a proposition to restrict, if not absolutely destroy, the facilities of the people of a territory, acquired either peacefully or by conquest, for wresting their daily bread from their native soil.

In the debate upon the amendments to the Hawaiian government bill in the House of Representatives in April, 1900, Mr. Newlands, evidently from the then existing conditions, foresaw the demand for Asiatic labor as the result of the system which was being exploited in Hawaii at that time. In the course of his remarks he said:

"Now, so far as the Hawaiian Islands are concerned, the tendency there is toward land monopoly. The tendency always is to employ in these semi-tropical countries either slave labor or semi-slave labor. There the lands have been drifting into large holdings. We should in this very bill limit the number of acres which any corporation should hold; and if any existing corporations hold land in excess of the limit, we should by some just provision, extending over a period, compel the disposition of those lands by sale, so that this land monopoly may be broken up; otherwise we will have in the Hawaiian Islands an oligarchy stronger than the one that existed there in the past with an absolute monopoly of the lands in the hands of the few, and an abject, servile population, incapable of resisting oppression or of exercising the rights of freemen. It does seem to me that in our initial legislation, intended to meet the conditions of these islands, where the present tendency toward land monopoly is great, and where the tendency will be greater as the value of these lands rise, as the trade with this country increases, we ought to make a provision here and we ought to extend this same provision of the general law applying to all Territories hitherto admitted into the Union to Hawaii, coupling it with such a provision as will protect existing vested rights."

The question of Asiatic or Chinese labor in the colonies is closely allied to the main issue which will be decided at the next session of Congress when the bill comes up for the extension of the exclusion act. If it is conceded to our newly acquired possessions, it will be an opening wedge to penetration into our home territory. Already the matter of substituting Chinese for negro labor has been mooted by large land-holders in the South, and although not generally favored in that section, the opposition would doubtless become less pronounced if the sugar planters of the Gulf States were forced to compete with their insular rivals with the latter's advantage in the matter of cheaper labor. But that would be as nothing compared with the wrong that would be inflicted upon the colored race, whose boon of freedom would be dearly purchased at the price of semi-starvation. There is no argument against the free admission of Chinese in the United States that will not hold good in regard to its outlying territory, and the present labor condition of the country is sufficient argument for their exclusion from every part and portion of our national domain.

BACK WITH THE SILVER SLAYERS.

SENATOR JOHN P. JONES, on his way from Santa Monica to Washington, stopped over in Reno a portion of last Saturday. It was rather a prolonged visit for him, being of a little more than ten hours duration. It was long enough at all events to inform the Republican hunters for a senatorial candidate that silver was dead, and that he had returned to the party that killed it. He said that the enormous output of gold had accomplished all that bimetalism could have accomplished. This was supplemental to the somewhat conflicting declaration that he was "as sincere a believer in bimetalism as when he left the Republican party solely for that cause." He did not state exactly when this "enormous gold output" which so changed the financial conditions, and his politics, occurred, but it must have been sometime since last November, when he made his quadrennial visit to Nevada expressly, it was understood, to vote for Mr. Bryan. In regard to his candidacy for re-election the Senator expressed himself "candidly" in this wise: "Nothing would delight me more than that some strong Republican whom we can elect would come out as a candidate for the Senate, and I will support him with all my heart." In view of the fact that the Republican politicians have for the last year been unsuccessfully hunting the woods, canyons and plains for a senatorial candidate, of course "properly equipped," and that it was Hobson's choice with them, the Senator's reply can hardly be regarded as non-committal.

The interview embraced other matters, not of particular local importance or interest, all of which very properly first appeared in a California paper Sunday morning, in a half column dispatch wired from Reno, and from all of which the reasonable inference may be drawn that Hon. John P. Jones of Santa Monica, Cal., is a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate from the battle-born commonwealth of Nevada.

QUESTIONABLE LIBERALITY.

THE boasted liberality of President Roosevelt in disregarding party lines in the appointment of a couple of "Democrats" to important federal offices in the South loses considerable of its force when it is known that the appointees were both "gold Democrats," and who in all probability voted for McKinley and Roosevelt if they voted at all. It was no new departure on the part of President Roosevelt, for President McKinley always had a kindly patronage feeling for the Palmer and Buckner Republican contingent, the same as Cleveland cherished towards the mugwumps of his day and generation. The Democratic party proper of the South will hardly appreciate such "disregard of party lines" in thus recognizing the Democratic bolting element in the land of Dixie.

SOME of the great legal lights of the country confess or profess their inability to devise any method for the suppression or regulation of trusts. While this may be a difficult problem, how to cease to foster and encourage them seems to our wild and woolly western mind a very simple and uncomplicated matter. For instance, there is nothing in the federal constitution to prohibit the abolishment of the tariff tax which enables the monopolies to sell at a profit their products abroad at ten percent rates less than is charged to home consumers.

ARIZONA is knocking loudly for admission at the Union gate, which should be thrown open without further delay. She has been knocking for years and political "expediency" has been the only barrier to her entrance. In addition to her vast mineral resources she has an assessed property valuation of $40,000,000 and a population of three times that of Nevada, which has supported with becoming grace and dignity the honors of Statehood for nearly forty years. Arizona is well entitled to a star on the national banner.

ON THE QUESTION OF CHINESE IMMIGRATION

Congressman Francis G. Newlands Replies to President Dearborne of the Hawaiian Steamship Co.

Representative Newlands recently received a letter from President Dearborne of the Hawaiian Steamship Co., urging his views as to the necessity of promoting Chinese Immigration to Hawaii in order to supply the demands of the planters there.

The letter was accompanied by an article written by Mr. Dearborne in The Expansionist, a monthly magazine devoted to the consideration of all questions relating to our new possessions.

Mr. Newlands' reply is as follows:
Reno, Nevada, Oct. 26, 1901.
George S. Dearborne, Esq., President
American-Hawaiian Steamship Co.,
11 Broadway Street, New York.

Dear Sir:
I am in receipt of your letter of September 26th, in which you invite criticism of your article in "The Expansionist" on "The Needs of Hawaii." In this article, after considering the unreliability of the Japanese laborers, you urge a "modification of the present range of exclusion under the Geary Act, permitting the entrance and employment of a certain fixed number of Chinese, simply sufficient for the urgent demands of the sugar plantations."

Whilst I have no doubt that the increase of business and enterprise consequent upon annexation, necessitates an increase in the laboring forces of the Hawaiian Islands, I am opposed to an increase of Chinese Immigration. I think that legislation should apply itself to the reforms necessary to create in Hawaii a self-respecting citizenship, rather than a mere effort to increase the profits of the sugar planters or the value of the land which they own.

So long as the present economic conditions exist in Hawaii, involving the concentration of large areas of land in the hands of individuals and corporations, and the employment of the laborers as mere machines for the cultivation of the soil, we cannot hope to develop there such a citizenship as will be able to maintain the free institutions of the Republic.

By incorporating Hawaii into the United States, we gave those islands the benefit of the enlarged markets of this country, and nearly doubled the value of their sugar product by bringing it within our tariff walls without imposing upon it a duty. This great gain has enormously increased the value of the lands in Hawaii.

In granting it, we should have accompanied it with such legislation as would have given a large portion of the benefit to labor, thus tending to create there an intelligent and capable citizenship.

The climate of the Sandwich Islands is mild, and is suited to white people accustomed to a temperate climate such as that of Italy and Spain, and portions of this country, and even were these not available we have in our negro population of the South and in our mixed population of Porto Rico, a class of people whose welfare it should be our aim to steadily advance, and I believe in compelling Hawaii to seek its necessary labor from these sources instead of from the Asiatics.

Porto Rico is an over-populated island; its people are trained in pursuits which pertain to Hawaii, and there is no reason why they should not form a desirable class of laborers. We have a sufficient problem before us in the just treatment of the people of Porto Rico and the Negroes in this country, and I do not believe in further increasing our complications by promoting the immigration of inferior people from the outside.

I enclose you herewith a speech containing a running debate on various amendments which I offered to the Hawaiian Civil Government Bill, and which were intended to advance the conditions of the laboring classes; to prevent the permanent concentration of large areas of land and to promote small holdings. It may offer some suggestions which may aid you in reaching a conclusion. My own belief is that the men of enterprise, intelligence and wealth connected with Hawaii, should see to it that every effort is made not to secure alien cheap labor, but to provide gradually for a better system of labor; to create small holdings and to develop a population which will be in the end, sufficiently capable and intelligent to discharge the duties of American citizens. In other words: our aim should be not simply to increase the profits of the sugar planter, by providing him with cheap Asiatic labor, but to develop the average man in Hawaii into a capable American citizen.

Very Sincerely Yours,
FRANCIS G. NEWLANDS.

SYRUP OF FIGS

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinal laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

THE SUNDAY SERVICES*Brief Extracts from a Few of the Sermons.

Sunday evening the Volunteers of America were addressed by Dr. Clark of Los Angeles, who cheered on the local officers, and expressed his appreciation of the reading room feature which has been recently added to the V. of A.'s mission here.

Captain Henson read a chapter from the Bible, selected from the Gospel of Peter, and spoke a few appropriate words to the attentive audience.

The Volunteers are doing a good deal of worthy work in Reno, and offer every inducement to those seeking a life of a true and faithful Christian. Meetings are held on week nights as well as Sunday evenings. The hours are 8 o'clock p. m., and also at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoons.

The people of Reno are reminded of the fact that the reading room and general work of the Volunteers have to be kept up by the support of the public, and in such a noble cause the heartiest co-operation should be tendered this branch of the V. of A.

CONGREGATIONAL—The choir did not appear Sunday, owing to the illness of several of the members, and sickness in the family of Mrs. Wilson, the organist and director. This was a real deprivation, as the music is a part of the service greatly appreciated by attendants at this church.

The pastor's sermon was for the encouragement of the many people ambitious for the lives of usefulness but hindered by various limitations. These persons he called Prisoners of Opportunity, showing how, within the limitations some opportunity is sure to be found.

Two historic examples, illustrative of the principles were cited—Paul, the prisoner in Rome, and John Bunyan in Bedford Jail.

BAPTIST—Dr. Geote C. Laramore, who, for twenty years has preached to, by far, the largest congregation in Boston, has gone to New York City. Dr. Laramore is, in some respects, the greatest preacher and pulpit orator in the world today.

There were a couple of things occurred in Reno last week, outside of Baptist circles, that we feel like commending. One was the funeral address of Rev. Mr. Unsworth at the funeral of Mr. Kaiser, in which he urged upon thoughtful, capable, business men the importance of giving part of their time and substance to the strengthening and support of the Redeemers' Kingdom among men. The other was the last, and best, of Miss Biehler's lectures at the W. C. T. U. Convention, in which she proved, very conclusively, as it seems to us, the "equal privileges of men and women in all the walks of life."

That Junior Social last week was a great success. The little folks gave a good entertainment, and cleared about $6 for the Lord's work, of which they, very justly, feel proud.

There was a large congregation absent from the Baptist church Sunday. Among them were members of the church and people who are not members. It may be they don't like the preacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Balster, members of the San Jose, Cal., Baptist church, were compelled to stop in Reno Sunday, on their way to New York, on account of Mrs. Balster's health. We hope members of our church will call upon them at the Riverside Hotel.

Miss Tucker, a member of our church, spent a couple of weeks in California recently. She was in her accustomed place at church Sunday. Next week the general convention of Northern and Central California and Nevada will meet in annual session at Chico, California. The pastor, and perhaps some others from our church, will attend.

The Shoemaker to His Last

And a farmer to his plow," is an old but true saying. If you wanted to give an order for a pair of shoes you would not go to a tailor.

If you wanted to give an order for a suit of clothes, you would not apply to a shoemaker. So it ought to be in every business.

Those who make a business or profession a study ought to be better qualified to give satisfaction than those who do not.

In investing your money, you should seek a concern that is managed by financiers and bankers—men that possess full knowledge of the proper use and power of money, then your investment will be safe and good results will follow.

Such an opportunity is now before the people of Reno, for the "Phoenix" is an organization that is managed entirely by well-known men of financial and business reputation and wealth. In following these suggestions conservative management is assured, which will produce the best profit consistent with absolute safety.

In addition to all the money that the people pay into this company co-operatively, the strong cash capital is also to be considered. This cash capital is a reserve fund that is contributed by our head Directors, whose names you will see below. As all losses of every kind are chargeable to this fund, the loss naturally falls on the Directors. Therefore, outside of any moral obligation that might rest on them, their pecuniary financial or pocket-book interests alone demand that they give this organization a conservative and honest management, for if they did not, they themselves would be the first to suffer thereby.

In tomorrow's issue we will discuss the kind of branch that will be organized in Reno, and preliminary to said discussion we beg to inform you that all citizens in this city can, if they desire, participate in this very profitable enterprise.

Note our strong Board of head Directors and officers—Phoenix Savings Building and Loan Association, San Francisco, Cal.

A. A. Watkins (Vice-President W. W. Montague & Co., and President San Francisco Board of Trade), President, Director.

Charles R. Bishop (Vice-President Bank of California) Vice-President, Director.

S. Prentiss Smith (Director Bank of O. Mills & Co., Sacramento), Treasurer, Director.

Gavin McNab (attorney-at-law), Attorney, Director.

Clarence Grange (Late Building and Loan Commissioner, State of Montana), Secretary and Managing Director.

Charles E. Ladd (of Ladd & Tilton, bankers, Portland, Or.) Director.

George C. Boardman, Sr., (General Agent Aetna Fire Insurance Co. and Director San Francisco Savings Union), Director.

Payments may be made to Washoe County Bank, Reno, who will be the Treasurer.

For further information see T. W. Griffin, Field Manager, or either of the following special agents Newman Lien or W. H. Sheets at Riverside Hotel.
